

SEEKING AN

ARTIST

FOR THE LUTHERAN MISSAL

Apply

If you are a passionate artist with a love for religious art and a fervor for our Lutheran heritage, we would love to hear from you. Visit ludecupress.com for more information. Please email us to submit your portfolio, your bid for the project, and a brief note about your background and artistic qualifications no later than October 31st. Ideally, your portfolio will include a crucifix so we can see how you portray the human form.

Qualifications

The artist will be responsible for creating stunning and intricate designs that enhance the beauty and spiritual significance of The Lutheran Missal. Artistic talent, attention to detail, and understanding of religious iconography will be essential in this role.

Donate

We estimate that the final cost of commission and publication will reach $70,000 or more. If you would like to help beautify The Lutheran Missal and offset the final cost of the missal when it is complete, please consider donating. Visit the Donate page at ludecupress.com.

Design
